SAVES MUCH TIME

NEW COOKING UTENSIL THAT IS HANDY.

By This Device Three Dishes May Be Prepared at Once in the Same Frying Pan — Welcomed by Many.

The New Frying Pan.—For the woman who cooks for two a great convenience will be found in the new frying pan, in which it is possible to prepare more than one dish at a time, thus saving fuel, utensils and trouble.
A picture in a recent magazine shows a simple frying pan, with ordinary handle and different only in having a partition in the center bent in the shape of a broad V. Another straight piece goes from the point of the V to the other side of the pan. This makes three compartments, and permits the cooking of three dishes at once.

For the bachelor girl in cramped quarters who gets her own breakfast, any device is a help. Often her room or studio is equipped with only one gas burner, and it must be made to do as much service as possible in a limited time. Among the girls at the Art institute there are many who cook their own meals with slim paraphernalia. An actress in the "Road to Yesterday" company, recently said:
"Many of us prefer to breakfast in our rooms rather than bother to dress and go to the hotel dining room early in the day."

She proudly produced a tin cup and a spirit lamp "by aid of which," she said, "I can, in the course of human events, boil an egg and make a cup of coffee." Her ambition was to have a small gas burner and tube and a little frying pan of her very own. "Think of the Welsh rabbit I could make, after the play," she said. To such a girl and to thousands of her kind this new frying pan ought to be very welcome.

Polish Tarts.—Roll some good puff paste very thin. Cut into three-inch squares. Brush each square with the white of an egg, then fold the corners so that they all meet in the middle.
Brush over all with the white of an egg, sift sugar over them and bake in a quick oven. When done, drop a spoon of jam or jelly in the center where the ends join.

Dried Peach Pie.—Until the fresh peaches get a bit cheaper, the average housewife will make her family content with pie made of the dried fruit.
This is really very nice if carefully prepared. To the stewed and sweetened fruit add some sweet cream and a little butter. This, with some spice, makes the pie delicious, and is well worth the trouble and trifle of added cost.

Cocoanut Pyramids.—These can be made in ten minutes in the afternoon if company comes in for a cup of tea.
Beat the whites of two eggs with one-half pound of powdered sugar; beat well, until they will "stand alone." Then beat in one-half cup of dessicated (or grated) cocoanut and shape into pyramids. They require no cooking, but should be placed in a greased tin, or on paper, and browned in a quick oven.—Chicago Journal.

Economy Eggs.

The foundation for this dish is cold boiled potatoes. Select large potatoes and cut thick slices lengthwise, so you have the largest oval possible. Have ready some boiling hot lard or clarified fat. Drop into this the potato ovals and cook until golden brown. Drain thoroughly. Arrange on a hot platter with a rasher or two of bacon cut thin and cooked very crisp on each slice of potato. Then poach an egg for each person and lay this on a slice of potato with the rasher of bacon in between. A sprig of parsley on one side, and you have a very tasty service. Be sure your poached eggs are drained very dry, as the rasher of bacon and potato should be very crisp.
